Message from Sports Committee Chair, Lukas Dwelly: "All levels of skill are encouraged to attend, and this event is gender neutral. So, if you're a backroom hustler like Paul Newman from 'Color of Money', or someone like me who holds the back-to-back record for 'Lousiest Break—2011/2012 Respectively', we need you. Lastly, any side bets made are subject to a 10% house fee (I jest ... sorta)."

January 24, 2013 Rotary Meeting

The largest meeting in our 100 years ... that's what we had on Thursday! With 180 visitors, the Kentucky Center for African American Heritage was rockin' with Rotary!

President Stuart opened the meeting followed by Kelly Burke, offering the invocation reminding us to be mindful of opportunities to enrich the lives of others. Barbara Collins led the Pledge of Allegiance and introduced Pat Mathison who sang the National Anthem a capella, but ‘sang’ doesn’t begin to describe Pat’s talent! Mayor Fischer commented, “I have never seen so many men crying at one time!”

 Poised. Primed. Gaining Momentum. Mayor Fischer and his team are changing the direction of the City!

We cannot be complacent and compete in the global market for jobs in Louisville.

- Unemployment is at 7.4 percent in Louisville, down from 11 percent two years ago.
- 22,000 jobs have been created in that same time period.
- We are the fourth fastest growing job-generating city in the U.S.
- After four decades of deliberation, two bridges are being constructed.

Mayor Greg Fischer and President Stuart E. Alexander, III

With the goal of being known as America's Best City Government, city employees are encouraged to think in an innovative and entrepreneurial manner every day. What does Mayor Fischer ask of us to support Louisville? Hire a student intern. Call your state representative and support the 'local option'. Go online to visitlouisville.com and share your ideas for the future. Brag about Louisville. Positive people make positive things happen.

Mayor Fischer concluded by quoting Dr. Martin Luther King. "Faith is taking the first step when you don't see the entire staircase." We are in this journey together to move our city forward! - Don Cherrie
