About Robert Fleming and his presentation:

Prior to joining Actors Theatre of Louisville as the Executive Artistic Director, Fleming served as Associate Artistic Director at Cleveland Play House from 2016-2019. Prior to the Cleveland Play House, he served as the Director of Artistic Programming at Arena Stage; world premieres he commissioned, developed and championed during this tenure include the 2017 Best Musical Tony Award winner Dear Evan Hansen, Mary Kathryn Nagle's Sovereignty, John Strand's The Originalist, Katori Hall's Blood Quilt, Karen Zacarias' Destiny of Desire and the 2017 Pulitzer Prize winner, Sweat, by Lynn Nottage.

At this week's meeting, Fleming will provide Rotarians with a conversation about the multidimensional intersection of theatre and social enterprise, agile business practices, and community building.

January 23rd Meeting Recap:

Tom Miller, CEO of UofL Health shared with Rotarians the past, present and future regarding the acquisitions of Jewish Hospital and other KentuckyOne Health Louisville-area assets. He provided background of what has happened over the last few years and then shared where UofL Health is currently. Tom ended his presentation by discussing healthcare in Louisville as well as how it compares on a national level and stated his belief that, "We provide the best healthcare in the world."
