About our Guest Speaker & her presentation:

"My Old Kentucky Home Reimagined With GEDDI's America Reimagined Campaign: 7 Opportunities To Take Immediate Action Against Racial and Economic Justice as a Collective."

Entrepreneur and Founder of the Derby Diversity Business Summit (DDBS), Tawana Bain announces the founding of the Global Economic Diversity Development Initiative (GEDDI), a 501 (c) 3 non-profit foundation created to further the diversity, equity, and inclusion work with a specific emphasis on addressing the systemic issues within the Black Community. GEDDI (pronounced JED-eye), is a 100% Black founded and Black lead foundation based in Louisville, Kentucky. GEDDI's sole purpose over the next 5 years is supplying economic empowerment, supply chain development, leadership and workforce development with a specific focus on creating equity and opportunity for the Black Community utilizing a proprietary system.

Cara Silletto, Author and Workforce leader, gave Rotarians insight on her award-winning approach to bridging today's generational gaps to create a place where people WANT to work. During her presentation titled, "Millenials Input on the Workplace: A Generational Discussion You Haven't Had Yet," Cara shared her unique perspective on how today's new workforce is impacting retention, productivity, and profitability with an eye-opening discussion that pushed Rotarians to shift the way they lead in their work environments and in our communities.
