Rotary Meeting - May 31, 2012

President Stet opened the meeting with Jeffery Roberts, Sr. VP of Hilliard Lyons, offering the invocation. Bill Blocker, Real Estate Counselor, led the pledge and singing of America the Beautiful (one of 3-4 songs that we REALLY know) with Charlie Castner, Railroad Transportation, at his usual perch on the piano bench.

After welcoming a few guests, Randy Coe was brought on for the 100th Anniversary commercial. He enticed us all to purchase glasses, win five dollars, and even a chance to win a $100 'dinner for two' gift card to the Rivue Restaurant at the Galt House.

Connie Cheak hosted the Birthday Table for the birthday celebrants. President Stet gave accolades to Cindy Knapek, Gary Ulmer, and Mike Mountjoy for coverage in the local media.

Rick Heath, Peter Morrin and President Maynard 'Stet' Stetten, M.D.

Our next Rotary Night Out is on Wednesday, June 6 at 5:30 pm at the Pendennis Club with a tour of the historic building and dinner. Cost is $50 per person for dinner.

The next meeting will be at the ICE HOUSE at 226 East Washington Street. Parking option information will be provided in the meeting reminder email (and in this SPARKS issue).

Carl Thomas of Gheens Foundation gave a synopsis of the results of our Foundation's Endowment Fund. Stuart Alexander, next year's President, introduced new member Michael Carpenter, Senior Vice President of BB&T.

Rick Heath, Principal – Heath and Associates, gave the introduction of our guest speaker Peter Morrin. Peter is the former Executive Director of the Speed Museum and in retirement has assumed the duties of leading the local arts effort especially in the field of glassworks.

Peter gave us a "well-kept secret" of the history of glass art beginning in this country in Toledo back in the 1950's. It was fascinating! He also shared the fact that the Center for Arts & Culture Partnership at the University of Louisville endeavors to utilize the resources of area cultural institutions to serve in the education of U of L students.
