TERRY MEINERS

Radio/TV Personality

July 6 • Rotary Lunch Meeting
4th Floor Loft • Frazier History Museum
11:30 Buffet • 12:05 Meeting

Topic: 32 Years of laughs, commentary, and satire on WHAS Radio and Television

Join us as Terry Meiners talks about his legendary broadcasting career. Terry has been "cracking wise" on Louisville's airwaves since 1980. On his WHAS 840 daily afternoon radio show, Terry interviews newsmakers, sports people, imaginary characters, and virtually any real person who walks in through the WHAS studio door. Meiners has won Louisville Magazine's "Best Radio Personality" award 20 times, every time the category was offered in the annual readers' survey. Terry might just have a few stories to tell and some words of advice for his good friend incoming Rotary Club of Louisville President Tony Kemper.

JUNE 29 2017 - ROTARY MEETING RECAP

Our June 29th Rotary meeting featured our annual leadership changeover activities. Members had the chance to "Connect for Good" by sharing projects with each other. Member Cheryl Creech Kersey was named Rotarian of the Year, the first woman in our Club to achieve this honor. Finally, the gavel was handed to Tony Kemper, at which time he shared some insights as to what Rotarians can expect this year.

A video recording of our meeting will be published later at our YouTube channel.

Past-President Alice Bridges has included THIS NOTE of reflection to the membership.
