About Hal Smith:

Harold H. Hal Smith, a native of northern Kentucky, is a graduate of Centre College where he served as dean of admissions, lecturer in economics and management, and vice president and dean of students. After leaving Centre, he was vice-president for development at Muskingum College in Ohio for 14 years. He became the 16th president of Pikeville College in 1997. Upon his retirement in 2009, he was honored by the Pikeville College Board of Trustees by being named president emeritus. He now lives with his wife, Karen, in Louisville. Mr. Smith carries responsibility for all aspects of administration and donor development for the Foundation.

Hal will share several ideas, hints and thoughts about selecting a college, as well as making the most of that choice, in honor of our Rotary Promise Scholarship students.

Rotarians and their guests enjoyed beautiful weather and great fellowship at the "sold out" 3rd Annual Rotary Day at the Downs. Kevin Flanery, President of Churchill Downs and Travis Stone, Churchill Downs announcer, shared some of the history and highlights of their careers as well as provided some insights to the Derby. Our Club sponsored the 2nd race and dedicated it "In Memory of John Asher." Jerry Martin won 2nd prize for that race. Matthew Boone Gardiner and his wife, Hope, won Best Dressed Man and Best Dressed Woman. We hope everyone that attended had a wonderful day at the track and that cherished memories were made!
