About Scott Martin:

Scott Martin is the Executive Director of River Heritage Conservancy, a newly formed non-profit committed to the establishment of a 500+ acre park along the North Shore of the Falls of the Ohio. Scott has been fortunate to be a part of teams in Idaho, Virginia, and Kentucky that have built some of our nation's largest new public park and urban open space conservation systems over the last 20 years.

Directly out of the windows of the Muhammad Ali Center sits the North Shore of the Ohio River, one of our nations' most culturally significant landscapes, and one of our region's least visited and least appreciated assets. Scott's talk will introduce Rotary members to the Conservancy and its plan for our region's next big move in realizing the vision of "A Region of Parks." You're not going to believe what's next - and neither will Indianapolis, Nashville or our other competitors. GET READY!

November 14th Meeting Recap:

James "Jim" Bullard is the President and CEO of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis. In that role, he is a participant on the Federal Reserve's Open Market Committee (FOMC), which meets regularly to set the direction of U.S. monetary policy. He also oversees the Federal Reserve's Eight District, including activities at the St. Louis headquarters and its branches in Little Rock, AR, Louisville, KY and Memphis, TN. Bullard is a noted economist and scholar, and his positions are found on research-based thinking and an intellectual openness to new theories and explanations.
