Introducing Tracy Peck

By Delene Taylor

I'm excited to introduce my long-time friend, Tracy Peck, whom many of you met today. She will be providing some additional administrative help, as Amanda is very much in demand and does not have the capacity for the number of hours we need right now.

Tracy has been a Preschool Teacher at a private school the past 10 years and is looking to shift more into an office role. She and her husband John have two sons and recently celebrated 25 years of marriage! Please introduce yourself next time you see her.

She will be using the admin@rotary45.org email address.

Next Week's Meeting - Russ Cox, Norton Healthcare & Amy Luttrell, Goodwill of KY

Our featured speakers next week will be Russ Cox, CEO of Norton Healthcare and Amy Luttrell, CEO of Goodwill of Kentucky. The topic will be: Why Investing $100+ Million In West Louisville Is Good For Kentucky

The menu will be the Hot Brown and there will be a vegetarian option available upon request. Register by 12pm NOON on Monday, June 6th HERE.

NOTE: we will NOT be offering a Zoom option; please join us in person if you can! The meeting recording will be available for viewing within a few days after the meeting.

Today's Meeting Recap - Jose Gaztambide, Founder and CEO of GoodMaps

Today's featured speaker was Jose Gaztambide, Founder and CEO of GoodMaps, who shared insights on how interior mapping can be a vital resource for those who are vision-impaired, and also serve and support a variety of safety, security, orientation, and specialty needs inside buildings and physical spaces. You can watch the video that was referenced HERE and see more photos on our Facebook page.

Rotary Foundation Chair Mike Kull recognized Kevin Wardell, Past Club President 2014-2015 and Rotarian of the Year 2016, and his wife Linda for achieving Major Donor status.

Event Recap - Committee Fair / New Member Mixer at LCCC plus Ribbon Cutting & Shopping

We had a fantastic evening last Thursday at the Louisville Central Community Center! WDRB covered the ribbon cutting as Rotarian Kevin Fields launched the new Business Intelligence Center at the LCCC minority business incubator. President Jean had the opportunity to speak as did Rotarian Sharon Riehemann, who represented SCORE on behalf of Thom Crimans, who was traveling, and Rotarian Nachand Trabue, the founder of MELANnaire Marketplace. Many of the Marketplace vendors were set up in the atrium and a number of us made purchases, and new friends.

You can read more in Louisville Business First and view photos and a recording of the launch portion on our Facebook page HERE.

We also pinned some of our new members at the New Member Mixer that followed the Committee Fair. A big thank you to all who were a part of this evening.
