

Rotary Club of Louisville

Note from President Kevin & Meeting Recap

Hope you're having a nice week. We had a great Rotary luncheon last week! Click Read More below to see the full note and meeting recap I sent out earlier this week.

We are excited that Dr. Douglas Craddock, Jr., Vice President of Community Engagement at U of L, will be our speaker this week. His work in promoting community engagement and improving opportunities for people in all of Louisville can tie in well with some of the volunteer activities our club members do in our community. Dr. Craddock is a dynamic speaker.

See you tomorrow!

This Week's Meeting - Douglas Craddock, Jr.

Our meeting on Thursday, November 2nd at the University Club will feature Dr. Douglas Craddock, Jr., Vice President of Community Engagement at the University of Louisville*.

"What's on the Horizon for UofL?"

Dr. Craddock will share perspectives on the community, UofL's future, and how the university can better support the business community – and vice versa.

RSVPs are closed for this meeting; please email admin@rotary45.org if you would like to attend.

The menu will be spaghetti and meatballs; a salad with grilled chicken or a vegetarian/vegan and/or gluten-free option is available upon advance request.

There is a $5 meeting fee for those who choose not to purchase a meal - this will include a dessert and tea/coffee/water and, of course, a fantastic program. You can pay $5 in advance via SurveyMonkey or with cash, check or scan the QR code at check-in to pay with a credit card.

*Unfortunately, Dr. Schatzel has been called to Frankfort on Thursday and will not be able to speak at our meeting as planned.

Next Week's Meeting - David Jones, Jr.

Our meeting on Thursday, November 9th at the University Club will feature David Jones, Jr. He will discuss the autobiography of David A. Jones, *Always Moving Forward: A memoir of friends, family and building Humana, which depicts his father's profound impact on American health care, as well as his lifelong engagement in – and perhaps unparalleled impact on – his hometown of Louisville. The book, released on October 10, 2023, was published posthumously; Jones passed away in September 2019 as the initial draft was completed.

David will share the experience of reading accounts of his father's life – both the very public and well-known stories of his entrepreneurial life, as well as lesser-known and intimate moments of his personal life – from the perspective of an author and architect of today's modern health care, as well as from the perspective of his recently deceased father. Joining Jones will be longtime Louisville Courier-Journal columnist and eight-time author Bob Hill, who assisted with the autobiography.

RSVP HERE by NOON Monday, November 6th.

The menu will be Schnitzel with cabbage and potatoes; a salad with grilled chicken or a vegetarian/vegan and/or gluten-free option is available upon advance request.

There is a $5 meeting fee for those who choose not to purchase a meal - this will include a dessert and tea/coffee/water and, of course, a fantastic program. You can pay $5 in advance via SurveyMonkey or with cash, check or scan the QR code at check-in to pay with a credit card.

Re:Center Ministries Dinner: November 8

By Larry Sloan

Pictured: Kenya Wade, Ginger Wallace, Larry Sloan, Sandra Dodge, Brian Jackson

Please join us next Wednesday, November 8th to serve and have dinner with the men at Re:Center Ministries, 733 E. Jefferson Street. It will be an early opportunity to celebrate Thanksgiving with our friends going through the rehab program. The Holiday Season is a tough time for many, including those with addictions.

We set up the meal at 5:00 pm. Typically, I bring meat loaf, scalloped potatoes and steamed vegetables. Others supply the soft drinks, bread/rolls, salad and desserts of fruit pies.

The men we serve are going through the LifeChange program recovering from addiction. Those of us who do this regularly always feel like we get more out of it than the effort we put into it. Our club has supported this program with funds and volunteers since 2015. We would love to see some new faces! Contact me at larry.sloan@yahoo.com or David Snyder at davids@ndhc.org for more information or to sign up.

If you can't take a shift but want to help us win the challenge, swing by one of these Saturdays between 9:00am-3:00pm, drop some coins, and cheer us on! Or, you can make a donation HERE.

Events & Opportunities: Canopy Presents

By Ben Smock

What: The Ethics of Artificial Intelligence Pt 1: AI as a Tool

Organization: Canopy

Date/Time: Thursday, November 2nd, 5:00 - 7:00 pm

Location: Galaxie, 732 E Market St, Louisville, KY 40202

Description:

In the premier edition of Canopy's new Good Business live education series, Canopy Presents, representatives of academia, government, and for-profit business will dig into the Ethics of Artificial Intelligence Pt 1: AI as a Tool. Dr. Nat Irvin provides a strong theoretical perspective as a futurist and professor of such topics as leadership and team dynamics, Rotarian Councilman Ben Reno-Weber provides insight into AI as it intersects with government and public policy, and Jamia McDonald of Deloitte provides on-the-ground practical lessons from a company working closely with AI. Discussion will focus on the incredible opportunities and potential dangers of implementing the vast power of artificial intelligence to solve problems in the real world. Stick around afterward to enjoy a few drinks and connect with other folks interested in the topic!

Events & Opportunities: Parks Alliance of Louisville

By Alice Bridges

What: Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting Alberta O. Jones Park

Organization: AOB Consulting and Parks Alliance of Louisville

Date/Time: Saturday, November 18, 2023 at 3:30 pm

Location: Alberta O. Jones Park, 744 A. 23rd Street, Louisville, KY 40211

Description:

Alberta O. Jones Park will officially open to the public with a ribbon-cutting ceremony marking the completion of phase one of Louisville's newest metro public park. The project has united California Neighborhood residents and community partners in transforming nearly seven city blocks of vacant property into a vibrant public greenspace. Under the leadership of the nonprofit Parks Alliance of Louisville and a community-driven planning process facilitated with support from Alice Bridges, residents chose everything from recreational amenities to naming the park after Alberta Jones—a pioneering Louisville attorney and civil rights champion.
