September 17 Rotary Meeting

SCOTT MARTIN, Parks Director

Topic: Parklands Expansion Update

RIVUE Room, Galt House West, 25th Floor

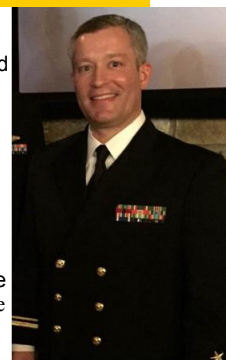

Buffet Opens at 11:30 am

Meeting begins at 12:10 pm

Scott Martin serves as the Parks Director for The Parklands of Floyds Fork – a private/public partnership developing a $125 million, 4,000 acre privately developed public park on the edge of Metro Louisville. Tasked with operating the park, Scott serves as member of the leadership team that seeks to reapply the metropolitan planning and development lessons of Fredrick Law Olmsted in the new century with the wrinkle of the new model being a private/public partnership. Member Spotlight

Lukas C. Dwelly is the Principal of AddMor, LLC, a strategic fund and business development firm. His fundraising successes are most notable with the University of Louisville and Kosair Charities, where they achieved double digit increases each consecutive year he was on staff. He has raised tens of millions of dollars for the Commonwealth of Kentucky during his career. In 2011, he was honored by his peers with the William J. Rothwell Colleague Award in Development as the top gift officer at the University of Louisville. Lukas has worked on several successful state and federal campaigns, and as a state aide to U.S. Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell. His grassroots advocacy efforts have been featured in various regional media outlets and picked up by the National Associated Press. Recognized as a rising leader in the Louisville area, he was named by Business First Forty Under Forty, and was also awarded the President's Volunteer Service Award by President George W. Bush. Lukas is a dedicated Rotarian, and currently serves as the Speakers Committee Chair. (more here)

It's easier than ever for you to invite a friend or colleague. Check out our membership criteria here.

September 10 Meeting: Gill Holland - Portland Pii Update

We were entertained before the meeting even began by the talented soloist Carly Johnson, accompanied splendidly by Kendall Carter on the piano. Carly's rendition of "At Last" was absolutely amazing!

Rotary Leadership Fellow Maggie Galloway introduced the guest speaker, Gill Holland, referred to by some as 'The Godfather of New Louisville' for his stunning success in the renovation of Louisville's East Market, now known as NuLu. Gill has now turned his attention to the Portland area.

Holland reported that since NuLu, Louisville is now a top-ten city, a far cry from what it was ten years ago. Now Gill's attention is on the Portland area with the Portland Investment Initiative (Pii). (more here)
