Presentation Title: "The effects of the COVID-19 crisis on health equity, and
who it is affecting
in the Southeast"

About our Guest Speaker:

Dr. Sutton joined Morehouse School of Medicine in September 2019 to serve as the inaugural Associate Dean of Academic Programs and Affiliations. In this role, she is responsible for the growth of academic programs to Columbus, GA and Albany, GA as well as partnerships such as the Early Commitment Program with Atlanta University Center Schools. She previously worked at the University of Louisville in the Department of Surgery and as Assistant Dean of Medical Education in Clinical Skills from 2011-2019.

Dr. Sutton is also president and founder of Surgery on Sunday Louisville (SOSL), a nonprofit founded in 2013 to provide free surgery to people who are uninsured or under-insured. With the aid of over 500 volunteers, SOSL has provided much needed surgical care to over 800 people in its six-year history. The organization has sponsored activities in three states - Kentucky, Indiana, and Massachusetts and soon to be Georgia. In June 2019, SOSL hosted its first national conference, the Health Equity and Literacy in Colon Cancer Conference in Louisville.

September 10th Meeting Recap:

The September 10th Rotary Club of Louisville meeting featured Dr. Eli Capilouto, the 12th President of the University of Kentucky. President Capilouto discussed the transformation of the campus, aimed at enriching the living-learning experience of UK's students, ensuring their success; strengthening the University's research infrastructure dedicated to solving Kentucky's most intractable health and economic challenges; expanding UK HealthCare's capacity to teach, heal, and serve. He also discussed the unique challenges the University has faced with COVID-19.

What is a Paul Harris Fellow?

Established in 1957, Paul Harris Fellow recognition is given to individuals who contribute, or who have contributions made in their name of $1,000 to the Annual Fund, PolioPlus, or an approved Foundation grant. Recognition consists of a certificate and pin.

Paul Harris Fellows can also be given on behalf of someone through Foundation Recognition points or through a combination of points and outright donations. Since the creation of the Paul Harris Fellow, over 1.6 million people have become Paul Harris Fellows, including notable figures such as a U.S. President Jimmy Carter, Russian President Boris Yeltsin, and polio vaccine developer Jonas Salk.

Are you ready to become a Paul Harris Fellow and join our fellow Rotarians in financially supporting The Rotary Foundation? Click HERE to make your donation to The Rotary Foundation today!
