June 18, 2025 Meeting | World Music Day

Wil Russoul is joining us this week to share more about World Music Day 2025. There will be live music all over town, and a variety of other activities for friends & families alike. There will be several outdoor stages downtown and many of our restaurants and breweries will host musicians as well. The fun starts as early as 10am, and will go until 10pm! Last year, this event brought thousands of people together in our downtown. This year is set to be even bigger!

2025-2026 Board is Installed

Breaking with tradition, the incoming Board was installed at the Annual Auction by new Assistant District Governor Pam Shaffer from the Shelton Club. The function was well attended, the food delicious, and the bidding lively, thanks to the Past President team of Tony Enzler and Lisa Smith.

Thanks to all who worked to bring the auction to a successful completion. Alex Klueh, chaired the committee with Travis Hoppe at the helm of the Auctria program and both worked on donations. Kim and Ken Mehin managed the HUGE Auction things-to-do list. Thanks also go to Monika Kuhnau, Jennifer Sturm, Doug, Jan, and Keith Twibell, Nancy Taylor, Sam and Robin Kim, and Jerry Rajcich for support and assistance.

pecial mention also to Rick Lovely, Rick and Linda Hole, Jennifer Mouncer, Craig Melhoff, Kati Kachman and Derek Bumrungsiri, John and Leslie O'Brien, and Josh Steele. Lisa Loveday and the staff from the Artic Pub and Smokehouse provided great food, bar, and service.

The final totals won't be in for a week or two, but at the end of the evening all agreed the event was a big success and a really fun evening. To all Rotarians, and supporting family members and friends, thanks for putting on a great auction.
