March 15, 2023 Meeting | David Steinman | John Larson

Past President David Steinman will gavel the meeting to order this week. David joined Rotary in 2011, joining his father, Steve, who was a forty-one year member. He owns David Steinman Insurance Agency. and is a Paul Harris Fellow

This week's program is John Larson, Director of the Polson Museum. John received his college education in Chicago. After graduating and gaining some museum experience there, he was called back to Hoquiam "when the museum board decided if they wanted to survive and grow, they needed a full-time director," said Larson. That was about twenty-five years ago, and the museum has flourished under Larson's direction.

John always has delightful stories of the Polson Museum and will update us on current projects.
