From the February 5, 2024 meeting
By Doug Berger

Pledge of Allegiance: Karen Bevers
Patriotic Song: Ana Orona solo of the Miley Cyrus song "Party in the USA"

VISITING ROTARIANS & GUESTS

Adm Tish and Capt. Tom Satre speakers and neighbors of President Geoff Dillon Lovestedt and Myka Renon, BHS Interact Club leaders Nanette Hearn and Tonita Naylor, Frannie Mae's Foods, guests of Deborah Jackson

REFLECTION

Chuck Capps shared a bit about what it means to be a Rotarian.

MUSIC COMMITTEE

John Stockwell was SOLO and gave us the following "Wild Game Fame"

Wild Game is coming this weekend! I'm sure that you all want to attend
 The food is a delight
 It will be a special night
 Promise, NO comedians!
 The committee has put the time in
 Led by chair Marin
 With Carrie, Daryl, Denise
 Also, Chuck Capps and ME
 Its finally happening this weekend!

John then called up all the "red badgers" for a rendition of "It's a Grand Old Flag."

After the song was completed, John admonished the group, "get rid of your red badges or you will be up here again!"

SERGEANT & HAPPY BUCKS

Mark Miller was the sergeant.

Geoff Pentz gave a Happy Buck for great neighbors Tom and Tish Satre (today's speakers). Chuck Capps for the Bremerton Cheer Squad winning the state championship "first time ever." This was passed on to him by Myka Renon, who is on the BHS Cheer Squad and sitting next to Chuck. Gordon Cromwell was happy to not be in California where his son is experiencing heavy rain and flooding. Jill Robinson gave thanks to BHS student Dillon Lovestedt for helping with Bell Ringing at Christmas.

Marty Cavalluzzi was glad to be able to attend meetings when he can due to busy Mondays at the college and a sad buck for his 89-year-old dad who has cancer. Marin Solace was happy because she gets to go to Mexico and the Dominican Republic for six weeks after the Wild Game Dinner. Deborah Jackson was happy that she is inspired by the work Rotary does. Laura McKerrow gave thanks to the Wild Game Dinner team for all their work. Doug Berger was happy he only has to take notes for the bulletin once and gave a "get well soon" and "thank you" to Steve Landau!

The sergeant's questions were about the history of the legal system.

Oldest Legal Code " Code of Hammurabi

1829 London police force started

1285 Statute of Winchester " Watchmen & Warders

Sir Robert Peel " Founded England's Bobbies

Shire Reeve System " form of local government in Medieval England and name of sheriff

Vigiles " Watchmen of Ancient Rome

---

ANNOUNCEMENTS BHS students Myka Renon and Dillon Lovestedt gave an update on the efforts of the Interact Club to raise funds to support the Food Box Project.

Marin Solace made a last to purchase Wild Game Dinner tickets. Marin said we have 130 signed up which is more than last year.

President Geoff reminded everyone of the Oyster Schuckin and Chili Feed at Tim Baker's house at 5 pm Thursday. Bring you shucking knife and appetite.

President Geoff also reminded everyone of the Sweethearts Luncheon next week. Please let Geoff know if you are coming since it will be a special lunch served by West Sound Tech and Olympic College students in the culinary program.

Keaton Martinez, our outbound exchange student to South Korea, performed with his band in the recent Bremerton High School ASB talent show - placing first!

LUNCHEON SPEAKERS

Our guest speakers were Adm Tish and Capt. Tom Satre, who happen to be neighbors of President Geoff. They gave a great presentation on their adventures with a 62-ft steel-hulled trawler and their Eco Tours " this is their last season after enjoying their retirement adventure. Great pictures and stories of their life in Alaska and wonderful wild life, especially the bears! Tish is also a past president of GlacierValley Rotary.

DRAWING

Dave Anderson won the draw but missed the Ace of Spades by one card!
