Last week we heard Sally Martin, sharing about a journey through the Antarctic.

This week we'll welcome Erin Hatch, who will answer the question 'What's a Wayzgoose?' and explain Bremerton's coolest arts festival, which is coming to the Marvin Williams Center in early June.

Rotary announcements

Scholarship season begins

Dick Sims is looking for volunteers to serve on a scholarship committee to interview applicants from West Sound Tech. It's a great experience to meet with students we will assist in their next step, and shows the kids that Rotary cares about them. The dates are May 21-22, and talk to Dick if you have questions.

Armed Forces Day just a week away

The Armed Forces Day festival parade will head through downtown Bremerton at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 18, and our own President David Emmons, whose Greater Kitsap Chamber of Commerce sponsors the festival, says we'll have as many entries as ever.

If you have an item to include with the Rotary announcements, please email David Nelson at heynels@gmail.com.

From the May 1 meeting...

Jay Lovato was happy, but they weren't his bucks! Jay's proxy happiness was for Tina Robinson, donating back her winnings from our March Madness raffle ... Vic Ulsh, for volunteer John Parvis and everything he does at Illahee Preserve...Alijah Hawley, for baby Elizabeth starting to roll over and for his brother's new twins... John Armstrong, for a quilt made by Barb Lovato... Patty Murphy for an upcoming trip to Spain and Portugal, where she'll see our old EBR friend Phyllis Mann, and for a recent visit by Tommy Brobst to attend to some trees... Chris James, for seeing Jerry dance... Doug O., for singing happy birthday to Gena Wales... David White, for a great weekend at the District Conference in Semiahmoo... and Bill Wright, because the morning's fines were coming from the Tom and Jerry Show and....waaaaaait, these are supposed to be happy...

Donna Evans bought a slew of tickets and it paid off when her number was called, with the winnings headed toward a Paul Harris Award. A win-win!

Greeters This Week - May 8

The Greeters/Finemasters for the May 8 Meeting will be Ron Muhleman and Craig Volweiler. Donna Evans will lead the Flag Salute/4-Way Test and present the Invocation.
