Last week President Andy hosted the annual EBR club assembly meeting, which featured multiple club members as speakers! Hopefully you learned a little more about who does what for EBR, and maybe heard an idea for a place you can get more involved in the coming year.

This week we'll welcome Kitsap County Superior Court Judge Jennifer Forbes, to talk about justice in Kitsap these days.

EBR shows up for summer lunches

Thanks to everyone who helped out serving the kids lunch at the East Bremerton Boys & Girls Club this week, and especially for President Andy and McCloud's involvement in that program. Rotarians who volunteered on Tuesday were Stacy Dore, Sue Shipley, Justin Paquette, Denny Smith, Connie Merrill, Vic Ulsh, Ron Muhleman, Jill Wallen, Bill Wright, Jeff Rowe, Alan Beam and representatives of Floor and Decor.

Illahee Preserve work effort on Friday

Our forest leadership team has arranged a full work day with a platoon of cadets from the Washington Youth Academy, which offers a chance to improve the trails and give those young people some positive behavior modeling. If you can join, even if just for a short window of time, please contact Vic Ulsh (seen above at an Aug. 10 work party with fellow EBR members with a strong back, Joe Stevick). The effort is planned for this Friday, Aug. 23, from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., and lunch is provided.

Blackberry Fest with Bremerton Rotary

The downtown club has inquired for volunteers to help set up for the community event that they help put on over Labor Day weekend. Stay tuned for more specifics. Also, President Andy has a booth at Blackberry Festival for McCloud's and has offered EBR space to promote the club.

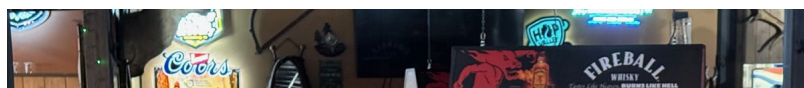

If you have an item to include with the Rotary announcements, please email David Nelson at heynels@gmail.com.

Who's happy?

From the Aug. 14 meeting...

David Emmons was happy to be on time for breakfast and got some bacon before it ran out... Paul Ofsthun brings greetings from former EBR member Kim Zook and wife Jan, up in Homer, Alaska... Doug O., for a successful fishing trip... Tom Brobst, sad to have lost a bet on whether the meeting would end on time, but happy for Kiera turning 30... President Andy, for David E.'s commitment to work on Labor Day after David thought he'd finally get the holiday off... Vic Ulsh, for club leaders like Dave White, and for Joe Stevick's strong back on an Illahee Preserve project...

Craig Volwiler, $10 for his 10-year-old granddaughter's visit from Montana... Dave White, for son Cam in town and a chance to see his granddaughter... Alan Beam, for the arrival of the USS Ronald Reagan... and Jill Wallen, for a trip to Denver, where she and John and Scott and Gail Bosch were able to see Graham Nash play an outdoor concert before the thunderstorm rolled in and soaked the crowd...

Jon Buesch had his number called a second week in a row, but with a bag full of white golf balls he couldn't fish out the golden one...
