Blackberry Fest booth sells out

Maybe we'll hear some happy totals from President Andy this week on the fundraiser, but we already know the idea to host a booth at the Bremerton Blackberry Festival was a winner. By 3 p.m. on Sunday afternoon we had sold out of our supply of blackberry pie and cobbler, with the proceeds going to our charitable giving projects. Thanks to President Andy for the inspiration and everyone who helped out over the weekend.

New prospective member: Courtney Finley

Please say hello to Courtney Finley, who is planning to join EBR as part of the Floor & Decor team, which recently opened up just north in the Bremerton Station plaza along Wheaton Way.

Illahee Preserve fall work party: One down, one to go

Our forest leadership team arranged a full work day with a platoon of cadets from the Washington Youth Academy last Friday, and the kids (and adults) persevered through a pouring rain storm to get a lot of chips laid down on the trail. Thanks to Joe Stevick, Jeff Rowe, David Nelson, and some other community helpers who joined Vic and Jon for the day. The next project with WYC is coming up Friday, Sept. 20, if you can check your calendars now.
