This Week's Speaker...

This Week's Speaker

Nannette McCann
Executive Director
Homeward Pet

February 9, 2023
Twin Lakes Country Club

Nanette McCann joined Homeward Pet as the Executive Director in 2018. It was Homeward Pet's reputation for community engagement and volunteer dedication that spoke to Nanette's personal values over her 30+ year career as a non-profit professional. She proudly leads a staff of 30 full and part time passionate welfare professionals, successfully partners with her 19 member board of directors and has set the goal of Homeward Pet owning its forever home by 2031.

Nanette is the mom of five girls, ages 32 to 8, and two fur-babies, Frankie and Ursula.

Hearts & Wine

Harvest Against Hunger's signature fundraising event, Hearts & Wine, is a live event this year and we are thrilled! After two years of holding it virtually, it's time to bring back the real thing. It will be a festive evening of fun, fellowship, fundraising and wine tasting while savoring generous appetizers. Join 200 to 300 concerned citizens who are passionate about reducing hunger and food waste in our community.

Date: Friday, February 24, 2023 at 6pm

Location: The Foundry by Herban Feast, 4130 1st Ave S, Seattle

Ticket Price: $100 until 2/10/23; $125 starting 2/11/23

Do you want to know more about hunger relief? Donna Moodie, owner of Marjorie Restaurant in Seattle, will talk about building community around food, how the pandemic has transformed the way we approach feeding people in need, and how food is a component of social justice.

Do you love wine? There will be 16 wineries each pouring three fine wines. Your ticket includes 15 wine tasting tokens.

Do you enjoy networking with like-minded people? This is an event you don't want to miss.

Find out more about the exciting program and buy your tickets at Hearts & Wine.
