Decatur H.S. holiday giving!

A message from Jenny Schrepfer at Decatur:

My name is Jenny and I am the School Outreach Coordinator for Decatur High School (Go Gators) in Federal Way. At Decatur we have over 1300 students, many who are in need of help during the Holiday Season. This is why we are reaching out to our local community, to see if you can assist our amazing families by contributing to our Holiday "Gator" Boxes. We hope to help approximately 30 families this season. Please see below for a list of suggestions. No gift is too small, we thank you in advance for helping to make this holiday season special for so many of our deserving families.

This year we are hoping to fill their Gator Boxes with warm, winter items such as:

- Gloves
- Hats

- Scarves
- Hoodies (all sizes)
- Thermal Undergarments
- Socks

In addition, we are hoping to fill the boxes with some food essentials such as:

- Pancake Mix
- Muffin Mix
- Rice
- Pasta
- Cereal
- Oatmeal
- Canned Soups
- Canned Vegetables
- Canned Fruits
- Hot Chocolate
- Tea
- Coffee
- Flour
- Sugar
- Icing
- Cookie Cutters (we need to throw in an element of fun!)
- Peanut Butter
- Jelly
- Instant Mashed Potatoes â€” just to name some basics.

In an effort to make donations easy, we have also created an Amazon wish list, feel free to share with your members if you wish.

Another option is to donate a gift card â€” your donation will go directly to help fill the Gator Boxes! Thanks to your support, we can continue to create environments where students can find that â€”safe spaceâ€”™ and know they are cared for. Please see below for my contact information. I am happy to come by to pick up any donation to our worthy cause. We hope to have all donations by December 15th so the boxes can be distributed by December 20th. I would also welcome the opportunity to come and speak at your next meeting if you think that would be beneficial.

With gratitude,

Jennifer Schrepfer
