Renton Rotarian Dani Smith

Dani Smith is a Pacific Northwest native, MBA graduate, and entrepreneur. She pursued a career in community activism and social reform in Washington DC before returning to Seattle to obtain her MBA at Northwest University. Amidst the pandemic, she began her food truck business, Cafe de la Loba & Dirty Dawgz to share her love for specialty coffee and gourmet hot dogs with others. She believes that food trucks should be of high quality, sustainable, and celebrate diversity. She began her second business Wild Seed Consulting in 2022 where she advises small business owners, entrepreneurs and advises on her Project Management expertise.

Renton Rotarian Bob Young

Bob Young and his wife Penney have lived in the Pacific Northwest since 1979. Their two adult sons, Tim and Philip, live in Oregon. Meanwhile their cat, Sapphire, stubbornly refuses to ever move out (and theyâ€™re glad)! Bob works from a home office most of the time. A few times a year he flies to client locations, mostly public utilities, to assist with cybersecurity issues, other technology projects, and training his clientsâ€™ engineers to keep them current on the latest â€œstuff.â€ Last November Bob and Penney celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.
