July 25th, 2024 Program

Leo Novsky
Defy Ventures

Leo Novsky is a Speaker, Coach and a Business Development catalyst on a mission to unlock untapped human potential behind the prison walls and beyond. As the founding Executive Director of the Washington Chapter of Defy Ventures, Leo spent several years working inside WA prisons to bring Defy's™ transformational program to men and women determined to transform their hustle.

Leo is a creative, passionate and purpose-driven educator. He creates a world of engagement, authenticity and transformation by helping unlock untapped business and entrepreneurship potential through teaching, coaching and equity building.

Turn in Your Ducky Tickets

"Simba, It is time!"

Ok, I couldn't think of a Ducky reference as appropriate as this, so Lion King it is.

Please bring your Ducky sales money and ticket stubs to the meeting this week. If you can't make it, call me (Lora 206-276-9290) to arrange a meet. We have to have the stubs in hand so we can ensure the ducks have the sold ticket numbers on them and get into the net.

Ducky HQ is again Fire Station 11 on the Mill side of the building. I will be there starting Saturday at 9:00 am and throughout the weekend. Many thanks to Rotarian and Fire Chief Steve Heitman for making the space available. It is perfect for our needs, and we very much appreciate it.

Parade volunteers are still needed (thanks to those who have already answered the call) for this Saturday - please contact Mike O'Halloran (425-417-9104) to get the details. We are also asking for folks to staff the booths during the weekend. Mike's got that info as well. Duck sticking is Sunday at 10 am at HQ and we have enough volunteers already signed up but we won't turn you away if you want to help.

Many hands are required for this important, money-raising, budget-impacting, we have to earn it to give it away event.

Thank you to all who have worked so hard on this! We are almost there!
