BE THE INSPIRATION

District Conference 2019 Supplement Edition

Alan Merry
District Governor

DG Alan's Column

The District Conference Special Edition didn't include a description of our Rotaract Presenters and their topics, so we've added them to this issue.

As you will see when you read their information on page 4, we have an amazing group of young Rotarians.

We also have an additional option for those who are unable to attend the full conference.

The ballroom will be packed but there will be plenty of room to stretch out, have a drink, and listen to our keynote presenters, Bill Gates and RI President, Barry Rassin.

This $25 ticket includes a theater seat for Saturday evening only. Must bring ticket with you for entry. More information at www.cometogether2019.com.

I'm looking forward to seeing you at the District Conference and celebrating all of the wonderful work our clubs have done this year.

Thank you for being my inspiration!

~ Alan

5030 Newsletter - Breakout Speakers

Rotary Passport Clubs

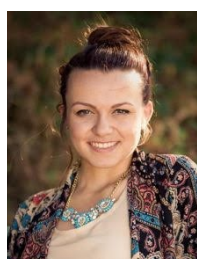

Rotary is changing with the times. No longer a club of just senior executives and business owners, Rotary has evolved into a dynamic, inclusive environment where people can connect, thrive, and grow to make a difference in their communities and in the world.

Rotary's meeting model is also evolving with the formation of E-Clubs and Passport Clubs. Learn how you can connect with your community, locally and internationally, through a different kind of Rotary Club. One that works for you and your family while strengthening your communities.

Presenters include Debi Dockins, D5080 RYLA Camp Director and Assistant Governor A9 . And, Darby Martin, President of Seattle University Rotaract.

Clearing the Path: Interact to Rotaract to Rotary

One of the largest hurdles Rotary faces is bridging the gap between young Interactors to Rotaractors and finally to Rotarians. This session brings together a panel of experienced members of all levels of the Rotary family.

Panel members will discuss their perspectives and explain what led them to make the transition to the next step of Rotary and what has deterred them. There will also be an opportunity for the audience to ask questions to gain further insight on the panel's perspectives.

Your moderator is Arielle Howell, University of Washington Seattle Rotaract Club, 5030 District Rotaract Representative .

Speed Mentoring

A Chance to Explore Mentoring Connection, Fast!

Arielle Howell

During this breakout session Rotarians and Rotaractors will get the opportunity to engage in a guided mentoring activity. Members with similar careers and interests will be matched to share experiences and provide guidance to one another. As the motto of this Rotary year is to "Be the Inspiration," we ask that you join us and embody this phrase.

Your session leader is University of Washington Seattle Rotaract Club, 5030 District Rotaract Representative .

Micromarketing for Your Club and Business

Ashlyn Carlson

Discover the power of micromarketing and the platforms that will increase your connection within new markets.

Your presenter is Ashlyn Carlson, University of Washington Seattle Rotaract Club.

Inspiration Mentoring

Todd Shepard

Introducing Inspiration Mentoring. This unique online mentoring program based on a Facebook format allows Rotarians to engage with and mentor Rotaractors on a variety of topics including business, family, personal growth.

Members are encouraged to join the closed Facebook group where they can explore the concept and sign up as a mentor or mentee and be matched.

A simple to follow process encourages weekly phone or video calls over a five week period. Conversation starters are included so no prior experience as a mentor is required. Make a difference.... Be the Inspiration!

Your presenter is Todd Shepard , Tri-Cities Sunrise Rotary and District 5080 Rotaract Chair
