This week 05/08/25 - Stage Kids

THIS WEEK - STAGE KIDS WASHINGTON

Statement on the SK website:

"Confidence. Humility. Teamwork. Responsibility. Creativity. Empathy. Joy! Theater skills are life skills delivered in an incredibly fun, engaging, age-appropriate way. Whether your child already loves singing, dancing, and acting, or could just use an opportunity to explore who they are and make new friends in a positive environment, Stage Kids shows are a great way to keep your kiddo growing and laughing this year!

Stage Kids is an educational theater program that focuses on developing character. We see the value of having children develop skills in classes in addition to participating in shows. For this reason, simultaneous enrollment in a class is required while in the cast of a show. Stage Kids knows that kids grow in confidence when they grow in skills!"

The next show is Aladdin Jr, with two casts, beginning May 28 at Numerica PAC.

LAST WEEK - APPLE BLOSSOM ALL-SERVICE-CLUB LUNCH

At least 400 people gathered at the convention center to celebrate the Apple Blossom Festival , and all of the many service clubs in the region, from Quincy to Chelan to Leavenworth were represented.

After the event, our members with their guests gathered for an amazing group photo (including Rueben at far left).

We were an awesome force!

INTERACT CLUB NEWS.

A number of Wenatchee High School Interact Club members have served concessions at hockey games to earn money for their Club. Similarly, a number of Club members, not necessarily the same members, have volunteered at the Wenatchee Rescue Mission to serve meals to the Mission's residents and guests. On April 28 the Interact Club invited the Rescue Mission's Directors, Monique and Scott Johnson, to attend the Interact meeting at WHS and present a profile of the Mission and issues that homeless people face in the community. Then the Interact Club presented the Johnsons with a check for $1,200 that the students had earned.
