Pizza Night at Dan & Jan's

Friday, March 7, 2025

Having fun is what we do in Rotary! On March 4, we had our Annual Pizza Night at Dan and Jan's in Rosebery. Dan started out making a vegan pizza especially for Andi, as his vegan pizza was the last one made last year. The second one was a no-tomato-sauce pizza for Mayumi due to her tomato allergy, then Dan went on to a regular one which everyone else had been waiting for. Thank you, Dan and Jan, for hosting the fun evening!

Peace Literacy Course on Aggression

Navigating Aggression

Its Causes, Anatomy, and Alternatives

Online Course Apr. 14– May. 16, 2025

Join educators & community leaders from around the world who are

Committed to building skills for meeting the challenges of the 21st century

Feedback from participants:

- “The course is vital because of the climate we live in. As an educator we need to be able to approach our colleagues, students and parents with a mindfulness to be able to see where they are coming from and what they are going through.”
- “I see LOTS of places this will help me in interactions at school, particularly with students, but I also see ways in which this will help my own discernment about how I can and should continue to work for justice in the world.”
- “I just can't get over how helpful, important and relevant this information is.”

Certification 20 professional development units/ 2 continuing ed credits

Objectives:

- Identify the 7 Features of Strong Communities
- Build Empathy for Self and Others
- Identify the Fires Beneath Aggression
- Cultivate Calm in Yourself and Others During Conflict
- Understand Moral Fury and the Power of Waging Peace

Peace Literacy's online course on "Aggression" is starting again on April 17. Lately, when we watch the news on TV, we can't help but feel polarized, apprehensive, and aggressive. Learning Peace skills is becoming more and more important for our children and for us as adults, who are the role models for our children.

If you are interested in this 5-week, self-paced, online course on Aggression in April, please contact Mayumi at mayumivdp@gmail.com. You'll receive a 50% discount if you register through Rotary.
