NEWS OF THE WEEK

PROGRAM THIS WEEK

Jen has lined up Jaimie Appel, local entrepreneur and owner of Appel Heights, a Main Street business that extends beyond the city limits of lil' ole' Colfax. She's part of a sixth-generation farm family here on the Palouse. Should be an interesting program!

EXCERPT OF BOARD MEETING MINUTES MAY 14, 2025

Old Business:

- Little League Breakfast down a little, food cost higher, new code reader worked well.
- Secretary is needed for 2025-2026, will keep asking for a volunteer.
- Road Sign updates, tabled until next meeting.

New Business:

- Colfax Thrifty Grandmothers emailed and would like to donate again and asked what we would suggest they donate to. The board suggested RYLA support. Kay will let them know.
- New Member application came in online. Tyler Stevenson was referred by Jay Hart and Dalton McNeilly. Tim moved, Kay seconded and motion passed.
- Colin Hafner is going to complete an application online or by paper application soon.
- Kay reported on a DOT project she was contacted about. Horn Rest Area Pollination Garden they are wanting a group to take on and put in and maintain. Discussion was held and decided we were committed to our existing projects. Kay will email him.
- Pullman Club grant application was discussed and we will be notified if they get approval.
- Bob reported on Fireworks and that the library no longer offers wifi hot spot. Tim will contact Dalton and Bob will look into a couple other options the library gave him.
