ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Colfax Rotary Club met at 12:00 noon at the Methodist Church June 23, 2022. President Hank Hannigan opened the meeting

By leading the group in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States. Pastor Ian McMaster provided the invocation.

Bob Lothspeich reported the net profit from the Little League Breakfast was $3,429. Great job Colfax Rotary. The fireworks stand will be set up this weekend. It will be manned by the women's softball team and the men's baseball team. The fireworks have been ordered and will be delivered later this week.

Our next meeting will be an in-person meeting at the Methodist Church on July 14th. it will again be a BYOL (Bring you own lunch.) See you then. Scott Ackerman is program chairman.

Rex Rutledge was installed as a new member. He explained how a young boy from Southern Alabama migrated to New Jersey eventually got settled in the Palouse.

Visitors at the meeting were Molly Keogh from the Chamber of Commerce who will be submitting a new member application. Molly was a member of a Rotary club before relocating to Colfax. Also visiting was Harun Kamoye from the Harrison House. harun is a former member of the Rotary Club of Kenya Mike Birnbaum, the new pastor at the Congregational church was also visiting. Mike was also a member of another Rotary club before relocating to Colfax. Mike and Ron are prospective members.

It was noted that the Colfax High School Wrestling team is having a pancake breakfast this weekend at the High School Cafeteria. Our club is supplying the pancake mix and griddles.

The Colfax Rotary breakfast at the Colfax Fly-in in the Buckley hanger at the Colfax airport will be September 24th. Last year we served over 200 pilots, their families and aviation enthusiasts. Pilots attended from as far away as Tacoma and Boise.

At the close of the meeting, Hank presented the President's gavel to Kay Riebold who will serve as President for the next Rotary' year. Kay presented a gift of appreciation to Hank for his two years of service as President. Kay also presented the officers new Rotary pins identifying their office. Tim Bruya was tasked by the Board a couple of months ago it nominates a member as President Elect. It now appears that after avoiding the nomination himself for 32 years that Tim will be our President-Elect.

PROGRAM

Molly Keogh from the Chamber of Commerce provided a report of the plans for the cities 150th anniversary celebration on July 23rd and July 24th. Look for the signage throughout town announcing the festivities including a beer garden, concerts in the park and kid's activities. A new mural will be painted and dedicated next to Jim's Service. The Chamber is also trying to make a greenway along a former railroad right of way through town. The chamber now has its office at the back of library. It is good to see such an enthusiastic activity in town.

HUMOR AND OTHER USEFUL INFORMATION

An egg and a chicken sit in a doctor's waiting room.

A nurse walks out of the office and asks, "Alright, which one of you came first?"

"Seriously!" shouts the chicken. " Here, too?!"

What do you call a priest who returns stuff to the store?

Holy redeemer.

Boss: Congratulations! I'm promoting you to manage our Montreal office!

Young man (disappointed): But sir! There's nothing up there but bar girls and hockey players.

Boss (now insulted): I'll have you know that MY MOTHER is from Montreal!

Young man (thinking fast): No kidding? What hockey team did she play on?

I was sitting behind an enthusiastic mom at my son's Little League game. Her boy was pitching for the opposing team, and she cheered as he threw wild pitch after wild pitch.

The poor kid walked every batter. It was only the first inning, and the score was 12-0. Then one batter finally hit the ball.

"Oh no," the mom wailed. "There goes his no-hitter."
