Welcome to our first new format bulletin. This is my first attempt at building this so comments are welcome as long as they are nice ones!! I have added in a few stories and articles from Rotary further afield and there is so much more we can do. We would love to get some local stories going here not only for the website but for our bulletin.

Eva Hernandez - Club lead on Projects presents projects funded for 2022/2023

By Gordon Malcolm on Tuesday, July 18, 2023

On June 29th at the Spouses social evening of the Castlegar Sunrise Rotary Club, Eva Hernandez, our club lead on projects, gave a fantastic presentation of all that the club had achieved during the year 2022. This was held at the Castlegar Casino, where approximately 25 people attended.

It was amazing to see all that Rotary has contributed to locally and the organizations that we were able to help out during our last Rotary year, which runs from July 1st to June 30th.

It seemed a very fitting way to end our year in this way and gave everyone encouragement as to the extent of the clubs reach into the community of Castlegar. For those of you unable to make it Eva is planning to create a video of the presentation slides so you can atleast see what was achieved.

Scottish Tour Fast Approaches

By Gordon Malcolm on Monday, July 24, 2023

On September 10th 15 people, including Rotarians and spouses from the Castlegar Sunrise Rotary Club, will begin a 4 day/5 night tour of Scottish Distilleries to taste some of the finest Scotch ever made.

The one thing that the Rotarians have in common is a love for fine Scotch and quality cigars. We generally meet during the summer where we enjoy sampling all kinds of whisky from around the world while we enjoy a meal and good fellowship together.

The trip has taken just over a year to organize but we are all really looking forward to what will be a great experience. We finish the evening with a night in the Scottish Whisky Society, sampling some of their fine whiskies and having a final meal with each other before going our separate ways. Look out for pictures to follow.

July is the month of new leadership and marks the beginning of the new Rotary fiscal year. If you are a new club president, you have probably led your first club and board meetings. It can be an exciting or even intimidating time.

You have resources available to help you make the most of this time and enjoy a successful year. Your area is served by experienced past presidents, in the role of assistant governors, and they're eager to help. I've listed them at the end of this article.

DACdb Officer Training

DACdb Secretary Training

Want to polish your secretary skills for your club, or perhaps prepare for your new role next year?

Here is a page that can help you: log into DACdb, click the Support/Training tab, DACdb Training on the left hand menu, and Officer Training. I wish I could just give you a link, but you'll have to log in anyway.

RYLA 2023!

By Debi Dockins on Wednesday, July 12, 2023

We met after three long years of zoom meetings with the leaders who had been chosen to attend the RYLA 2020 camp. The list of Rotary staff will be at the end of this note and as camp director, I send my sincere thanks to them. AND to ALL of you! You supported the efforts of RYLA, you donated funds to help cover the increased costs, and then you went out and found the coolest attendees you could find.

To hear more about what happened this year at RYLA, please Read More
