Why Should You Join the District 5080 DEI Book Club?

Rotary President Elect Jennifer Jones is encouraging us to explore DEI as a way to strengthen our clubs and expand our reach. Here is what she says:

"During 2022-23, I encourage all of us — as individuals, in our clubs, and in our districts — to exemplify our commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion. We can each do our part to advance DEI by:

1. Learning more about DEI at Rotary
2. Determining why DEI matters in our own club and our own area, and how using these principles can help our club grow and

Attrition, Attrition, Attrition

A common belief about real estate is that demand is determined by three factors: location, location, location. Shifting to Rotary Clubs and membership growth, it's all about attrition, attrition, attrition.

Rotary Clubs do well at attracting new members. The only thing keeping them from growing are the members who leave.

Engaging members and keeping them interested can help to reduce attrition. Yet growth requires more than just those efforts, important as they are. That's because a certain amount of attrition is beyond a club's control. Some members pass away. Other members move away. Some face job or schedule changes that make it difficult to attend Rotary meetings. Others may face financial difficulties. What is a Rotary Club to do? Read More
