So Many Membership Options

By Doreen Fox Kelsey on Friday, October 29, 2021

Rotary International recognizes just two types of membership ♦ Active Members pay dues and Honorary Members do not. But wait, there ♦s more! Rotary allows clubs to create different types of memberships as defined by their club bylaws. Several are listed below, and these are just examples. Clubs can create other options provided these conform to the Manual of Procedure. Read More

Rotary International ♦s 2021 Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Statement

By Sheila C. Hart on Friday, October 29, 2021

Have you ever attended an RI Convention and been enchanted by the colourful attire worn by Rotarians around the world? Have you reached out to speak to someone who may be different from you in the colour of their skin, religious beliefs, and languages spoken or political beliefs? Take advantage of such opportunities to learn about differences but also about similarities in our commitment to Rotary.

Help Wanted

By Lynn O'Connor on Friday, October 29, 2021

Help Wanted

Canadian Director for Waterton-Glacier International Peace Park Association (WGIPPA): Canadian Rotarians of District 5080 are invited to apply for this position, one to be accepted immediately; the other term to start next Rotary year. This is a perfect blend of peace and environmental focus as there are many fun actions to be involved in: Peace Action, Branding & Promotion, Indigenous Enactment, and Outreach. A knowledge of peacebuilding (8 Pillars), and availability to attend Directors' meeting and the Annual Assembly are needed. For more information, contact Lynn O'Connor at lynntoconnor@gmail.com.

Attend the Tucson Institute Virtually
