Race for Warmth, Fireside Chat, and more

Wednesday, January 25, 2023

This week, we won't be having our regular 7 a.m. Friday meeting. Instead, we'll be combining three events Friday afternoon: Race for Warmth, sponsored by Clark Public Utilities; our third quarter Fireside Chat; and a social.

- Race for Warmth registration fees go directly to Operation Warm Heart, a Clark Public Utilities customer-funded program to help limited-income families in crisis situations pay their electric bills. Our club foundation will match all members' registration fees with a contribution. Vancouver Sunrise Rotary members have been very active in participating in the annual
- New members earn their Blue Badges by participating in our quarterly Fireside Chats, where we discuss all things Rotary, from our club, to District 5100, to Rotary International.
- And our social this month is a pot luck. Last we heard, desserts are still needed.

To join us, come to Cellar 55, 1812 Washington Street. We'll start walking around 4 p.m. Friday, January 27, and will be back in time to start the Fireside Chat at 5 p.m.

You can still sign up for Race for Warmth at the PUD website. Be sure to let Mark Doar know, so the foundation can match your registration fee. Also, if you hurry, Jane might be able to pick up your packet if it's not too late, and bring to Cellar 5100. Just let her know.

And you can always show up Sunday for the in-person version of the race.

President's Corner

By Katherine H. Morris on Wednesday, January 25, 2023

Hello!

Even though I don't get super excited about exercise, I'm pretty stoked for this Friday and our Race for Warmth walk. Spending time and sharing a meal with y'all makes it even better! This is also a great time to get to know our two newest members, Sally Pyles and Jenny Thompson. These two women have hearts of gold and are a fantastic addition to our club. For our meal, I believe we have enough people bringing soup, salad, and bread. As far as I know, we don't have any desserts yet. I checked with Cellar 55 and they do have a limited selection of non-alcoholic drinks for sale. I look forward to hanging out with you!
