Our meeting this week: Shared Hope International

Please join us this week as we explore a serious subject. Our speaker is Elizabeth Freisinger, of Shared Hope International. Founded by former U.S. Representative Linda Smith, Shared Hope's mission is to fight against the sex trafficking industry, to prevent trafficking, restore survivors to normalcy, and bring justice for trafficking survivors and to predators.

We'll be meeting 7 a.m. Friday, March 8, at Bleu Door Bakery, 2411 Main Street.

If you can't be with us in person, please join us on Zoom: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/87969967106?pwd=TUJmZzlybko4N1lGT2N1OUNKK1k0UT09>

Elizabeth Freisinger is the local events and activism manager for Shared Hope International. Elizabeth's journey towards making a difference began during her time at Gonzaga University, where she was actively involved in raising awareness against human trafficking through the Anti-Human Trafficking Club. Hello!

I'm looking forward to seeing you all at the meeting on Friday. At the club assembly in July, our members expressed an interest in working with Shared Hope International. Elizabeth Freisinger, Shared Hope's growth strategies, local events, and activism manager, will be our speaker. She will help us to understand the size and scope of the sex-trafficking issues facing our community and internationally. She will also share what they are doing to prevent sex trafficking and how they support the victims. As you listen, think about how our club can help.

I've noticed that we have had to cut several of our speakers short recently and were not able to fully benefit from adequate time for Q & A. I would like to adjust our meeting format just a bit to allow a little more time for our speakers and assure that we can finish on time. We have an amazing newsletter that contains most of our announcements, information on upcoming events and upcoming speakers, and updates on past or ongoing projects. I will be shortening the time spent at the meeting on information that is in the newsletter. We will still have time for announcements but will avoid repeating the details that are in the newsletter.

Have a great week. See you on Friday!
