Meetings and Events

No meeting on tomorrow, July 2....the meeting this week is our Fourth Fest event downtown Thursday morning and afternoon!

How are you serving your club's high profile projects over the month of July? Hope to see all of us front and center with the Fourth Fest activities or finding a way to better our Quilt Show Passport campaign that runs through July 13 (see below)....sign up to serve when you can this week if you haven't already!

July 20: Frontiersman and Author Jim Cornelius

Born in the suburbs of Los Angeles, Jim Cornelius grew up dreaming of distant frontiers, of mountain men, long hunters, African explorers. His older brother gave him a tattered copy of Allan W. Eckert's The Frontiersmen, a biography of Simon Kenton, and the twig was bent.

Graduated from the University of California, Santa Cruz, Jim received honors in History even though he primarily focused on a self-directed course in woods running. He now resides on the high desert of Central Oregon, where he makes his living with his pen. A musician and a songwriter, he also remains a woods runner dreaming of distant frontiers. He is the keeper of the blog Frontier Partisans.com and the author of the book Warriors of the Wildlands: True Tales of the Frontier Partisans.

August 6: Andrew Untermeyer, Senior Media Consultant, Central Oregon Daily

Andrew began his career in Broadcasting in 1986 at KUIK Radio in Hillsboro, Oregon. He moved to Central Oregon in 1989 to manage the sales department for KSJJ/KPRB Radio in Redmond and helped launch the FOX TV station in Bend in 1996.

Untermeyer joined Central Oregon Daily in 2017. He has been married for 34 years to Margie with 2 adult children, AJ and Marlee. What he loves most about his job is that his career is all about News, Sports, Politics and Culture from the sidelines.

August 20: Seed-to-Table Founder and Farm Director Audrey Tehan

Audrey Tehan, founder and Farm Director will be speaking about all the upgrades and changes at the Seed-to-Table Farm.

We presented Seed to Table Farm with a $500 check in support of all their efforts.

President Sandy: Thank You For Your Trust In Me To Lead

(I trust all of you saw the special email that President Sandy put out over the weekend on our upcoming Fourth Fest and the volunteer opportunities around our activities to entertain and celebrate with the families of Sisters Country. If you missed it, take a look in your email inbox.—Thanks!)

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

First of all I say, thank you to our club members. Thanks for asking me to lead our club through this next year. Thanks to Bill Kelly for the work he has done this past year to bring energy, new members and excitement to the group. I want to answer a question we each ask ourselves.

Why am I a Rotarian? Some of you may remember my mention that both my father and my sister are past presidents of their respective Rotary Clubs. There isn't a time that I can remember when my father was not a Rotarian. So as you can understand from an age when I could carry my load, literally, I was volunteered to participate in Rotary events.

Through this involvement I began to understand the meaning of community. The value that support of our community bring to other individuals, many of whom are in need of support. I understood the depth of relationships and how they extend far beyond the reach of club meetings. As I watched my sister become involved with her local club and again, I was recruited from across the country to be involved, I witnessed the value and support her small club provided to their community.

Before retiring to Sisters I have spent over 45 years in various positions within healthcare, many of those years providing direct care to individuals in need. Experiences across all those years, from youth to retirement build a strong sense within your core, a fire that you want to keep burning. Joining Rotary was and is in my family roots so my direction was clear.

When I met Steve Auerbach and listened to his enthusiasm I knew that the Rotary Club and especially within this Rotary Club I would find my place. So again I say thank you. I look forward to bridging from past year into the years to come.

I would like to close with an introspective prayer of sorts from one of my favorite science fiction authors, "Protect me from knowing what I don't need to know. Protect me from even knowing that there are things to know that I don't know.

Protect me from knowing that I decided not to know about the things that I decided not to know about. Amen.

~ Douglas Adams, Mostly Harmless

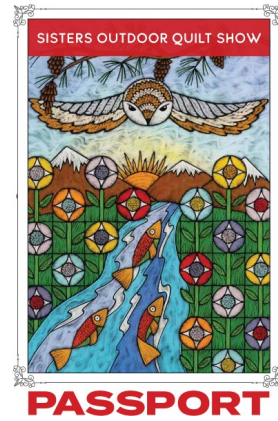

Lord, lord, lord. Protect me from the consequences of the above prayer.

~Douglas Adams, Mostly Harmless

Yours in service,
Sandy Reilly
President, Rotary Club of Sisters
