Words from Your President

Wishing you a great Labor Day today and hope you're enjoying the beautiful weather, spending time with family, and sharing a scrumptious cookout.

Update on the Little Free Library ... we have installed another LFL in the Parkview Ranch Estates (Lei and Hal live there); one close to installation (any day now) at Pine Meadow; and one awaiting location approval near the Chamber of Commerce/Fir Park site. Would like to congratulate all the members who have participated in this endeavor for a job well done.

The meeting on September 20 has been cancelled because many members will be out of town and we did not want the scheduled speaker to come for just a few. INSTEAD, we will be having a social on September 29 from 5:00 to 7:00pm at the newly opened Toriizaka Art Gallery at 222 W Hood Avenue. Hope you'll come look around at all the interesting artwork, enjoy delicious appetizers, beverages and fellowship.

At the last club meeting we invited Chloe Frazee from Sisters High School who attended the RYLA camp last June. She shared some wonderful experiences, learning to trust others, bonding with each of the students, and has made life-long friendships as a result. Hoping next year we will be able to send two SHS students. Chloe will definitely be promoting and advocating for this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to encourage participation.

This week's speaker is Janet Hodges from the Sisters Historical Society. Janet's ancestors are early settlers to Sisters and bet she'll have lots of interesting stories to tell. Come for fellowship and bring a friend.
