Meetings and Events

Tomorrow: Juli DiChiro, Rotary District 5110 International Service Chair

Club PE Jim Lanzarotta has had several discussions with Juli about International Service and the Sisters Club's opportunities to contribute time and treasure. She will come visit with us to address recent International Service successes of our District and what is planned for the future.

Jim is hoping to have the discussion include how our Club can also work with the rest of the Deschutes County club on some significant international projects.

November 5: Club Summit with Current President Sandy Reilly and Prez Elect Jim Lanzarotta

A very important meeting for future club planning. Our current and future leaders will address the club budget, project calendar and the three-year Rotary International strategy and how it sets up our club for additional success.

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

October has a fifth Tuesday, October 29th. Let's bring the club together again with an early evening social downtown.

Torizaka Art Gallery has offered to open its gallery to us as they have done in the past. This is a beautiful venue to gather, view some interesting and beautiful pieces and enjoy conversation and light food and libations.

I would like to suggest a potluck style social as we usually do and I will start it off by offering to bring Spanish meatballs, crostini and sauce as I have done in the past and possibly some chocolate chip cookies for those just looking to satisfy a sweet tooth.

I will confirm with Karen Thomas this weekend and let everyone know during the meeting this coming Tuesday. Let's bring the Rotary party downtown to celebrate fall.

Thank you all for your continued service to Rotary---while having FUN!

Sandy Reilly
President, Rotary Club of Sisters

All Club Members Have Board Meeting Open Invites

President Sandy is encouraging club member participation at the Board leadership meeting starting with his first.

The Board will convene Monday, October 15 (TODAY) starting at 4:30 p.m. at the Pine Meadow meeting room (pictured to the right).

Club Profile #4: Judy Corwin

Who is Judy Corwin in 1-2 sentences? Wife, mother, and professional, who drove 4,000 miles cross-country in my 1967 Pontiac Tempest from Weirton, WV to Oregon to volunteer coach with the Oregon State gymnastics team.

Today, I am the luckiest person with a loving husband Mike, three beautiful and successful children, my first grandchild, and the good fortune to have worked professionally in journalism and marketing in sports, higher education, and healthcare. On the side, I've been a gymnast, gymnastics coach and choral singer with both Corvallis Repertory Singers and now Central Oregon Mastersingers.

Years in Rotary? 27 years, 2015 club president, Past District PI Chair

Profession(s)? See above and now I'm giving back by teaching future generations at COCC what I know.

Family? Husband Mike, Children Kiel, Aaron, and Kami; Grandbaby Aine (6 months)

Why Rotary? I was asked to join Rotary by my employer, The Corvallis Clinic, for community relations purposes. What I found was a wonderful purpose to provide service and leadership opportunities. I have stayed a Rotarian for 27 years in 4 different clubs, been a club president during the 30th year of Women in Rotary, attended district and international conferences, served in district leadership roles, and most of all enjoyed the camaraderie and efforts to help and serve others.

Post-Rotary Lunch...Join Us This Week

Several club members have assembled for lunch in town immediately after our bi-monthly meetings and all are welcome. Here is a list formalizing the plan and hopefully getting many of you to keep your hunger in check until the 1 p.m. hour on club meeting days:

October 15: Three Creeks (pictured, right)

November 5: Spoons

November 19: Sisters Saloon

The main goal is additional interaction and networking to get to know our fellow Rotarians better and maybe conspire to further our community service locally.

We are also very open to suggestions/recommendations for additional lunch stop potentials looking to spread our patronage of our Sisters eateries!
