Meetings and Events

November 1 (tomorrow) -- Program: Steve Woodside

Steve possesses more than 30 years of off-shore experience in Asia, Europe, and the Americas working on soft and hard goods. He has worked for Nike and Columbia dedicated to work with supply chain, sourcing/manufacturing and/or corporate operations.

Nov. 15 -- Program: Emma Fried-Cassorla, Council of Aging Director of Communications & Programs

Emma inspires compassion by being a voice for older adults. She manages their non-federally funded program, Caring Connections, and she is actively involved in designing and developing new programs that support seniors. As a new resident to central Oregon, Emma felt the need to invest in and support her community.

Dec. 6 -- Program: Linda Johnson, Bend Rotary President

Linda is leading the Rotary Food Insecurity campaign.

Dec. 20 -- Program: Ridgeview HS Choir

Director Belinda Sisson will bring her choir (not all of them :), we will be able to accommodate them) to share Holiday Carols with the Club.

Words from Your President

Dear Fellow Rotarians:

Today many of us will be at the Halloween Parade doing our best to keep those excited kiddos in line to get their treats at????????the many businesses in Sisters. Thank you all in advance for your participation in this annual event which Sisters Rotary has been involved with for many years.

Francie Kibby
November 5th
Ann Marie Davis
November 8th

Thank you to Fr. Sibi from St. Edward Catholic Church for sharing with us his work with the very poor who are medically and/or mentally disabled in Northern India. There are seven orphanages in the area with dedicated volunteers who educate and train them to learn simple chores like feeding and helping to care for those unable to manage themselves, or simple jobs so they can work outside of their facility. This could be an international project we could get involved with in some way in the future.

Our speaker tomorrow is Steve Woodside, a former OSU and NBA basketball player who worked at Nike and Columbia Sportswear. He will be able to address manufacturing and supply chain issues as they impact the economy and our dependency on trade with China and Taiwan. Please join us for an hour of fellowship and to hear Steve's perceptions of today's international business world.
