In this week's meeting we will spend a few minutes listening to a message from our new Rotary International President, Gordon McNally. I assure you that you will be entertained and touched by what he has to say and will identify with the theme he has established for this next year.

Then we will spend some time talking about how to enrich the experience of our Rotary membership. This will be an interactive discussion with many of those ideas coming directly from you. We need your voice, we need your energy, we need your action. We look forward to seeing you on Thursday.
