Sorry...it was a slow news week...back to Jokes

There's two men working together at the sawmill when one of them accidentally saws his arm off. Quickly thinking his friend takes the arm, puts it in a plastic bag and rushes them to hospital. The following day he visits the hospital to find his friend playing tennis.

"Wow the wonders of modern science".

So anyway they get back to work and are chatting away when a lapse in concentration results in the same careless guy sawing his leg off.

Knowing the drill his friend takes the leg, puts it in a plastic bag and off they all go to hospital. The next visiting time he finds his friend playing football.

"Wow the wonders of modern science".

A week later, back at work when the guy leans forward just a little too far and saws his head off. Straight away his friend takes the head, puts it in a plastic bag and rushes them all off to hospital. The next day the friend visits to find no sign of his chum.

"Where's my friend" asks the guy of the orderly.

"Well", said the orderly, "we could have saved him with the wonders of modern science but some idiot put his head in a plastic bag and he suffocated".

Once upon a time, there were three little pigs. The first little pig walked into a bar. 'Give me five beers.' When he was done he asked, 'Where's the bathroom?'

'Down the hall and to the left,' replied the bartender. The second little pig walked into the bar and asked, 'How many beers did my brother have?'

"Five."

'Then I'll have ten.'

When he was done he asked, 'Where's the bathroom?'

'Down the hall and to the left,' replied the bartender. The third little pig walked into the bar and asked, 'How many beers did my brother have?'

'Ten.'

'Then I'll have Fifteen.'

When he was done he started eating the peanuts on the bar. The bartender asked, 'Aren't you going to ask where the bathroom is?'

'No,' said the little pig. 'I'm the little pig that goes wee wee wee all the way home.'

A woman awakes one morning to find her beloved dog keeled over on the carpet. In distress she takes the dog to the vet who checks the dog and shakes his head.

"Ma'am, I think your dog is dead," he says.

The woman, wringing her hands says, "Oh but doctor, can't you be sure? I would hate to bury my beloved dog alive accidentally!"

The doctor tells her there is one test left that

Recognition of Paul Harris Contributions at February 29th Meeting.

A portion of the February 29th weekly meeting will be devoted to recognizing the many Rotarians who have contributed to the Rotary Foundation via the Paul Harris Fellow fund. In the second half of last year, the board, on recommendation from Barney Simonsen, opted to match 1 for 1 any donation made by a member towards their Paul Harris Fellow account with up to 1000 club points per member. If you are going to get an award, please try to attend, so you can be properly recognized. A group photo will be taken.

Many Rotarians stepped up to the challenge and we want to recognize all who have achieved a Paul Harris Fellow award since that challenge began. This match will continue through the end of June of this year, so there is still plenty of time to start or to add to your Paul Harris Fellow fund.

$8500 Remains for Worthwhile Projects for the Community

An amount of $8500 from the $40,000 of proceeds from the Livestock Auction remains available for additional worthwhile programs brought to the board by membership. Proposals must fall into one of the following criteria for consideration: 1.) Mental Health and Wellbeing, 2.) Youth and Families, 3.) Literacy, 4.) Clean Water, and 5.) Humanitarian, i.e. food security. Proposals must be made in person to the board or by a presentation at a weekly Rotary meeting with the request for funds made to the board.

To allow for ample time to review a proposal, the board will limit the reviews to two proposals per board meeting. Proposals will be addressed on a first-come, first-serve basis. The next open slot to present is at the board meeting April 10th. Please let a board member know if you plan on attending and making a presentation.
