This week's program

This week's speaker, Will Lathrop, is an attorney with extensive leadership experience in the fight against human trafficking. Beginning his career in Oregon as a deputy district attorney, where he specialized in prosecuting child sex abuse cases, he later joined the National District Attorneys Association in Alexandria, Virginia, providing essential assistance and training to district attorneys and law enforcement officers nationwide.

Transitioning to global advocacy, Lathrop led initiatives in Northern Uganda, combating violence against widows and orphans. His role expanded in 2018 when he led the West Africa anti-human trafficking operation in Ghana, achieving remarkable success in reducing child enslavement in the fishing industry.

Next week's program

Next week's speaker will be Ralph Kleinschmit from S&F Scenarios, LLC.
