This week's speaker will be Sharon Harr, president of the Mid-Willamette Valley Chapter of Friendship Force International.

Founded in 1992, Friendship Force International is a non-profit, non-sectarian, non-political, international organization, focused on promoting understanding, cultural education and citizen diplomacy through home-stay journeys and personal friendships. Over 150 journeys take place internationally each year, bringing people of all backgrounds and many countries together with the goal of promoting understanding, friendship and world peace.

The Friendship Force of Oregon's Mid-Willamette Valley, one of over 276 clubs in 49 countries, was started over 30 years ago and presently has about 40 members. Eleven members will be attending the Friendship Force International Conference, in Dubrovnik, Croatia, in early October.
