This week's program

This week's speaker is Erica Andrews, executive director of Willamette Valley Rehabilitation Center.

In 1961, Willamette Valley Rehabilitation Center was formally incorporated as a not-for-profit corporation, serving 15 individuals and housed in an old dance hall three miles east of Lebanon, Oregon. WVRC has since grown to provide training and employment to more than 120 individuals with special needs.

WVRC is a private non-profit rehabilitation facility providing vocational services to individuals who experience disabilities. They provide a variety of training & employment alternatives, enabling individuals to access meaningful employment, participate in decisions, and lead fulfilling lives.

Next week's program

Next week, Don McBride will talk about ShelterBox.
