This Week's Meeting

Our weekly meeting this week will be at Ridgeview High School in the Sky Box area. The Ridgeview Choir will perform Christmas songs for us and the Culinary students are preparing their best holiday lunch for us.

Holiday Party

Thank you Social Committee Janice Burges for planning a delightful evening at last Saturday's Annual Holiday Party. The Falls clubhouse was once again the perfect setting for the occasion with special holiday decorations. The menu was terrific. Paul, as the loquacious emcee, was dressed festively for the occasion along with many others. The highlight of the evening was the White Elephant gift exchange. Most popular gifts frequently traded were lottery tickets, Grinch slippers, Willy Nelson Chia-Pet, and arisque, upside-down snowman sweatshirt.

The 4-Way Forest

Debra Simonson spotted this sign on a recent trip to Anchorage, Alaska.

The Four-Way Forest

Fourth Avenue was once lined with trees, linking urban downtown with its majestic natural surroundings. The Rotary "Four-Way Forest" re-establishes the important connection that all Alaskans have with the great outdoors.

Named after Rotary's Four-Way Test, the "Four-Way Forest" represents a universal "golden rule" that benefits us all. Applying the Four-Way Test to our personal and professional lives, makes our community a better place to live, work and play.

In recognition of Rick Nerland, Anchorage entrepreneur and philanthropist, who guided his successful company The Nerland Agency, later Spawn Ideas, to success by the Four-Way Test.
