This Week

This week's luncheon meeting will feature speaker Emily Boynton from Mosaic Community Health. Mosaic provides high-quality, integrated, culturally appropriate healthcare to Central Oregonians, regardless of life circumstances. For accurate lunch accounting, please reply to: rotaryredmond@gmail.com if you are attending and let us know if you plan to invite a guest.

Greeters this month: Ryan Sale, Marv Kaplan, and Joe Kosanovic

New Member

Last Thursday, President Janice Burges had the privilege of inducting Bill Zettler into the Rotary Club of Redmond as a new red badge member. Bill lives in Crooked River Ranch and is a software engineer, owner of Bill Zettler Consulting.

Welcome Bill.

Annual Berry Sale

We are once again partnering with the Willamette Valley Fruit Company to bring the finest strawberries, blueberries, and marionberries available to our customers in Central Oregon. This fundraiser supports Redmond Unified Sports / Adaptive PE, an inclusive program that partners students with intellectual disabilities with other students for sporting events, giving everyone of all intellectual ability the chance to compete as athletes.

RYLA - Breaking News

The Rotary Youth Leadership Awards deadline for applications has been extended to the end of this month to allow for more students to attend this wonderful camp. If you know a high school sophomore or junior that would be interested in this opportunity, contact Tara Messner of Dave Brenneman. Also, send them this VIDEO.

Stroke Awareness

Member Lawnae Hunter was present when the Deschutes County Board of County Commissioners and the City of Bend Council issued proclamations acknowledging and proclaiming May as Stroke Awareness Month. Lawnae has extended an invitation for Stroke Awareness Oregon's fundraiser featuring country western singer Randy Travis, next Monday, May 13th at 6:00. Tickets are available on their website.
