President's Message

By Bruce Mackey

Global Perspective

Working with our TRF Committee on selecting a Global Grant project has a side benefit. It underscores the "Thanks" in Thanksgiving.

Reviewing the appeals, from around the world, for help with sanitation, malnutrition, disease, illiteracy, poverty, and the ravages of war makes one reflect on how much we have to be grateful for and how much we often take for granted.

Collaborating with our Club full of caring and giving Rotarians makes Thanksgiving the year 'round holiday for me. Thank you all!

Weekly Program

Happy Thanksgiving To ALL (no meeting this week)

Civil War Board

By Tamalyn R. Fitch

All Squares are filled! Four prizes for scores at the end of the 1st quarter, 2nd quarter, 3rd quarter and final end of game score matching the numbers for both teams. Thanks for playing and good luck everyone! Be sure to watch the game on November 26th! They play in Corvallis. Should be viewable on ESPN or ABC.

Rockin Around the Christmas Tree

By Rae Anne LaMarche

Rockin' 'Round the Christmas Tree

Springfield Rotary will participate in this year’s Springfield Christmas Parade on December 3. The entry will include a tree (thank you Bob Schutte) surrounded by oversized decorated packages. Each package will represent one of our Community Service Projects. The tree will sport decorations (thank you, Rotarians) and a large “ribbon” with the words “Springfield Rotary Gifts to our Community.”

What do we still need? (if you can help in any of these way, please let Rae know)

1. Tree decorations: We would like to donate the tree after the parade if club members are willing to purchase or donate decorations that they don’t want returned.
2. Oversized WRAPPED boxes that we can place around the tree.
3. Walkers (or riders, to accompany the entry) wearing Rotary gear
4. Partners in crime to help design and assemble the entry.

The parade begins at 12:30. Further assembly and timing instructions will be sent by the organizing committee one week prior.

Rotary's Four-Way Test

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say, or do

The Four-Way Test is a nonpartisan and nonsectarian ethical guide for Rotarians to use for their personal and professional relationships.

Welcome Assignments

By Sue Fisher

Please arrive by 11:30 am. If you cannot do your assignment, please find another member to do so and let Sue Fisher know your replacement's name.

Greeter - wears the greeter badge and notes the names of guests on the clipboard as they come in, and also asks guests for their business card and places it on the clipboard (our President will follow up with each guest). Please have guests write their names on and wear a Rotary guest name tag. The president will have you introduce visiting Rotarians and Rotarians with guests, near the start of the program. Let the Rotarians introduce their guests.

Raffle-Door Prize/Attendance - Bring a gift of $20-25 and sell tickets (seated next to attendance) If you miss your Raffle assignment, because of the pipeline for red badge assignments and other scheduling issues, you will not typically be rescheduled, and the club will bill you for $25, and you are expected to provide a $25 gift card in recognition payment for the bill. Please do not provide $25 in cash. Have the speaker, or choose someone else to draw the winning ticket. Give the $$ to Liz and the microphone and gift to the award winner as they do Happy bucks. Mark down members that attend the meeting as they pick up their badges.

Bulletin Article – Type up a 300-500-word Autobiography of yourself OR a Rotary Moment story of your choice. Once created, please email Debi Bennet: debi@pacificcascade.org. If you have any questions, you can contact me at 541-285-8113 or 541-935-7979 or sue@fisherpm.net Thank you so much! Your help is very much appreciated!
