Rotary Club of Lakeport Rotogram

Meeting of March 29, 2023

Reporter: Tom Lincoln

The Beginning

Our esteemed president Laura called the meeting to order at 12:05 p.m.

Davis Tribute

President Laura departed from the regular order to pay tribute to Steve and Elizabeth Davis, who are in the process of relocating to Prescott, Arizona. The couple's service to Rotary spans decades, and Laura quite rightly took time to recognize their dedication to the principles of service above self. Their wit and wisdom will be missed, but we'll likely hear of future Rotary exploits as they settle into life in Prescott.

Pastor Greg

Pastor Greg gave another inspiring invocation, asking for special thoughts for a friend of Marie's who is recovering from recent surgery, and for Dennis whose mother passed recently.

Guests

I introduced Herb Lingl, a local pilot and very accomplished aerial photographer. I will be sponsoring his entry into the club. Erik Vogel we introduced. He is a care manager at Sequoia Senior Solutions in Lakeport. And Laura introduced John Tomlinson who presented the program later in the meeting.

Sunshine

Beth recognized members who shared the same club anniversaries. Ruth Darling and Dennis Fordham, 18 years! Beth and Dana Kearney, 25 years! Congratulations. Dave Schwenger delivered the joke of the day, something about a mirror and "not now" which had to be explained to several members. Dave is giving Bruce a run for his money in the joke department. And last, Cam Reeves announced his recent wedding anniversary. He and Sharon have been married for 59 years! Congratulations!!

Detective

Pam was completely unprepared, which sometimes makes for the best detective reports. Jokester Dave was fined for stealing Mark the Lipp's seat. Mark left in a huff. Lance was fined for something to do with the membership committee. Lawyer John was fined for his wife's new Tesla. The very reverend Dave got clipped for something to do with the club's sound system. And lastly, club janitor Alex was recognized for drumming up more government contracts for yer cleaning business.

Program

John Tomlinson of the Lake County Theatre Company regaled us with all things Shakespeare. John teaches film, speech and theater at the two local community colleges. The theater company will be staging its eight annual Shakespeare in the Park presentation in Lakeport's Library Park on July 29 and 30. Repeat performances will be in Clearlake's Austin Park on August 4 through 6. The performances are free and the cast is all volunteer. John says that we can show our support for local theater productions by attending their productions, bringing a friend, buying from local vendors who serve food and other items and by sponsoring their organization. Visit the group's website at laketheatre.org.

Announcements

The big announcement was from Greg. He desperately needs volunteers for this Sunday's Easter Egg hunt at the county fairgrounds. All hands are also needed Friday evening for the ritual egg dying party at Clearlake Redimix. Please show up and help.

Marie reminded everyone of the production "Fish Wrap" which is being performed at the Soper Reese Theater.

Adjourn

Laura once again recognized Steve and Elizabeth and instructed us all to be good Rotarians!
