Welcome, Invocation, and Pledge

President Laura was unavailable to run the meeting today, so she went down the list of Past Presidents until she came to my name, and I agreed to take her place. As to the reason why she was unavailable, my sources have confirmed that she had NOT been subpoenaed to testify before the January 6th Committee. As usual, Greg gave the Invocation and nobody had any concerns to share. Greg also led us in the Pledge, because he had never led the Pledge before.

Visitors and Guests

Faith introduced our guest, Bella, this year's exchange student from Zimbabwe..

Sunshine

David Schwenger tried to give a Sunshine report. Ruth Lincoln had a birthday, as did Dennis Fordham's wife, Dr. Kimberly, and Greg Scott who will be 76. John and Kim Lawson celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary. Club Anniversaries were celebrated by David MoonWainwright, Dave Schwenger, and some member whose first name is Kenny. I looked Kenny up in DACdb, and he has been a member since 1977. (most of our members weren't even born yet.)

Detective

The afore mentioned David MoonWright was the Detective. Dave began by calling out Lance for not being present to be the Detective last week, but then admitted that he hadn't called Lance to ask him to be the Detective. Personally, I would have continued to blame Lance. The following members were cited for not wearing a Rotary Pin to last Saturday's Wine Alliance Gala. Kelly, Faith, Judy (and Art Mann), Laura, Brock, and Jennifer. If Kenny had been there, he would have worn his Pi, just like Giovanni.

Program

Dennis Fordham introduced our Speaker, none other than Greg Scott! Greg gave us a talk about Toast Masters and his time in that Club. He never said "ah" or "er" at any time during his presentation. Toast Masters was founded in 1924, and, I think, Greg was a charter member.

Announcements

Dave Herrick gave a more detailed report on the Beer Booth, and we expressed our appreciation for all the work he did as the Chair of that committee.

No meeting at noon next Wednesday. It is "Rotary After Dusk And Then Dark" at the Mann's house. 1825 Hartley St., at 5:30. Dinner will be served. Spouses are welcome, as are boyfriends and girlfriends. Although I haven't asked permission, park in the Moreman's parking lot, and if anyone objects, tell them you are thinking of joining the church.
