This Week's Speaker, Antioch City Manager Con Johnson

Wednesday, July 20, 2022

Today's speaker is Antioch City Manager Con Johnson. Con became the interim City Manager in 2021. Con retired from the San Francisco Police Department as an lieutenant/night captain. Johnson earned a Master of Public Administration and Bachelor of Public Administration from the University of San Francisco. Some of his career accomplishments include (provided in article from Antioch Herald):

- Collaborating with various departments in creating the first African American Community Police Relations Oversight Board, San Francisco Police Department
- Developing and implementing Cultural Awareness, Cultural Competency and Racial Bias in police training for staff.
- Providing monthly updates to the Board of Supervisors, and Police Commission relating to San Francisco Police Department community-policing strategies and efforts.
- Collaborating with the Department of Health, Department of Youth Services and Juvenile Hall Center developing, planning, administering, overseeing the San Francisco Police Department city-wide Violence Intervention Program with a budget of $20 million and a staff of 60 mid managers and supervisor.
- Collaborating with criminologists to develop, implement, and manage the first of its kind gun violence reduction initiative 'Operation Cease Fire'."

At our meeting, Con will be inducted as new member of the Antioch Rotary! Welcome, Con!
