Rotary Demotion Notes for June 25, 2022

By Tony Akins

Well folks, another year has gone by and the next president in line kept us afloat in these crazy covid times. Using a mix of zoom, in-person and hybrid meetings with technology that did not always work, (possibly caused by relying on we of-a-certain-age digital immigrants), we finished another year. Our demotion party was held at George and Manuella Calhoun's residence. It was lovely night and, as usual, the Calhouns' backyard was a wonderful place to be.

The meeting started with Rita Corbinoock thanking her set up and taking down crews:

Set up crew:

George and Manuela Calhoun

Memory Woodard

Brad and Stephanie Prescott

Tear down crew:
Manuela Calhoun
Chris Moulis
Pat Virgalito
Stephanie Prescott

IT Department:
Richard Andrus
Harry Luan

MC Nick Virgalito was then called upon to roast, uh I mean to honor outgoing president

Ron Leone otherwise known as SuperRon. The main event started with Nick giving us the agenda by sharing the 4-way test for demotion parties:

Is it the truth? Well, no, not really, but sometimes, who knows?

Is it fair to all concerned? Well, to the rest of us, yes, to Ron, not so much.

Will it build goodwill and better friendships? Of course!

Will it be beneficial to all concerned? Please see the above answer for - "Is it the truth?"

Ron was in the education field for 35 years, then went into politics and was elected to the city council of the city of Concord, including a term as Mayor. Ron's family shared with Nick that Ron would get lost often while driving, but he was not afraid to ask for directions. As we all know, he loved really bad Dad jokes, a signature move from the Ron Leone

Club meetings last year. Ron was known to doodle at City Council meetings and Nick found some old ones and shared them with us. It turns out that SuperRon is a doodle artist and, wait for it, a karaoke singer in the vein of Dean Martin. Who knew? Pictures of Ron's youth were shown on the big screen and Ron very much looked like a young John Travolta from "Welcome Back Kotter". To end the honorific/roast, Nick gave Ron a test about Superman, and Ron passed it with flying colors, all while wearing his Superman cape. So many stories were shared, some true and some a little bit fabricated, that Nick had the crowd and, most importantly, Ron laughing and enjoying the evening event. It was a super monologue by Nick!

Outgoing President Ron came up, took a bow and shared his troubles and tribulations with technology (Zoom) and other challenges he went through in his year, as well as the accomplishments. He welcomed Memory Woodard as the incoming President, whereupon she took the mic happily.

Memory shared her hopes and aspirations for her year as president. Memory then introduced Ivan Hernandez, the President of the Diablo Valley Rotaract Club. Ivan is a graduate of YV High and was a member of the Interact club at YV. Ivan worked with Memory to form the DVC Club, which has now grown to 80 members.
