10-28-22 Concord Rotary newsletter

By Michael Joseph Barrington on Saturday, October 29, 2022

Greeter: Ron Melvin

At 12:15pm sharp, Memory gave the club to order.

Greg Grassi led us in the pledge to the flag and Rick Ernst followed it with a rousing rendition of the 4-Way Test.

Rick also welcomed several potential new members: Monica Bullet, a senior project engineer at Kaiser, first time visitor, Matt Belanger, an independent appraiser brought in by Niki Sullivan, and repeat "offender", Josephine Leiva with her cute little escort. (see Matt behind Rick)

It was good to see Rick Vossekuil again, having torn himself away from the golf courses of Arizona. (announced by Gene Voelkel)

Sean Duffy celebrated his anniversary today.

Memory gave an update on Youth Exchange supported by Dave Litty.

The October 19th event,

Rotary Means Business, was an outstanding success. Well done to host Nicki Sullivan and all those who helped put it together.

The District Conference in Monterrey starts tonight, Friday 28th.

Special Olympics: Nov 5, from 9-12 noon. Please sign up or call Ron Melvin.

Packaging of the hygiene bags for the Ladybug Project in conjunction with Impact 100 members will also commence that Saturday from 10 -12noon at the Prescott's house. Check in with Stephanie, if you want to help.

The Dictionary Project distribution took place this week, organized by Luis Alkon & Bill Bobetsky. A great event! How many years have we been doing this??

The Ukraine delegation will be here from Nov. 4 – 12.

On Thursday Nov 10th from 6:00 – 9:00 pm there will be a special Rotary Event with presentations by the Ukrainian group hosted by Carolyn Anderson and Lehmer's Buick/GMC at 1905 Market Street, Concord. This event will replace our Friday meeting.

The club will be dark on Friday November 11th.

Greg Grassi, as a stand-in for Tony Akins, presented Gerry Murphy with another Paul Harris award. Congratulations Gerry!

SPEAKER: Michele McKay-McCoy, retired Superior Court Judge. She gave us a serious, intellectual, historical, informed and funny overview of the Constitution and the 21st amendment. And just to help us out, she gave each one of us a copy of the said document.

The saddest moment of the presentation was when she confessed that she had joined the Walnut Creek Rotary Club!
