LAST WEEK'S

MEETING Notes by Reporter Kim Grossberg

Past President Jeff Clark presided at the meeting, as Prez Michael was under the weather.

Vula Rushdoony from The Macedonian Outreach told us a little about her life story and how she became involved with The Outreach project. Vula's family were refugees from Macedonia and she was born in Greece. Her dad died when she was 5, and when she was 15 she had the opportunity to come to America, although it meant leaving her family. She came to the US with her dreams of getting an education and "not to go hungry", and she proclaims that "America is the greatest country in the world!" When communism fell in the Balkans and she was able to visit in 1989, she saw a lot of need and felt it was time to try to give something back. She and her husband founded the Macedonian Outreach, which primarily helps children with food, clothing and the means to achieve educational goals. Rotary can help by collecting gently used children's clothing, coats, blankets, and men's suits to be shipped to the Balkan countries.

FEBRUARY 23 1905
PAUL HARRIS
FOUNDED ROTARY
WITH GUS, HIRAM & SILVESTER

Rotary started with the vision of one man — Paul Harris. The Chicago attorney formed the Rotary Club of Chicago on 23 February 1905, so professionals with diverse backgrounds could exchange ideas and form meaningful, lifelong friendships.

1896, Harris settled in Chicago and opened a law practice. Four years later, he met fellow attorney Bob Frank for dinner on Chicago's North Side. They walked around the area, stopping at shops along the way. Harris was impressed that Frank was friendly with many of the shopkeepers. He had not seen this kind of camaraderie among businessmen since moving to Chicago and wondered if there was a way to channel it, because it reminded him of growing up in Wallingford.

“The thought persisted that I was experiencing only what had happened to hundreds, perhaps thousands, of others in the great city. ... I was sure that there must be many other young men who had come from farms and small villages to establish themselves in Chicago. ... Why not bring them together? If others were longing for fellowship as I was, something would come of it.”

Harris eventually persuaded several business associates to discuss the idea of forming an organization for local professionals. On 23 February 1905, Harris, Gustavus Loehr, Silvester Schiele, and Hiram Shorey gathered at Loehr’s office in downtown Chicago for what would become known as the first Rotary club meeting.

In February 1907, Harris was elected the third president of the Rotary Club of Chicago. Toward the end of his presidency, he worked to expand Rotary beyond the city. Some club members resisted, not wanting to take on the additional financial burden. But Harris persisted, and by 1910, Rotary had expanded to several other major U.S. cities.
