She Builds Homes!

By Sean Isom on Thursday, September 29, 2022

President John Touchett opened the hybrid meeting with Leo and Kevin remote. John called on Aaron for innovation and pledge. Aaron confessed that last night he was nervous about what to say during the invocation, and then led us in the pledge.

Guests this morning included Diana Selland of the Noon Club, Donna Shield of Desrett Farms, our speaker Stefanie Olson, Curtis Avrit (who missed 5 noon club meetings), and Reed Peck of the Paul Peck family.

Announcements

- As John T announced last week, Suzie B had her baby so a pitcher was passed around. Over $300 was collected for her to open an investment account in the name of the new baby.
- Phil W reminded us that on 10/27 we will have a Murder Mystery party at the Chico Air Museum. It will be a pot luck so plan on bringing something as well as a beverage. More emails will be sent by Nancy and Phil.
- Randy K shared that, with the help of the noon club, we helped remove the roof of an out building at the Air Museum. In addition, Dan B donated some blood at the project.
- 4 tickets for Friday 10/30's SNB Oktoberfest are available from Larry G.
- World Polio Day is coming up. Nobody knew the date is Monday, October 24th.

Recognitions

- Teresa returned to the club after being in Leavenworth WA, Michigan, St. Louis. Part for fun and part for conference...3 bells.
- Neil Y returned from an epic 3-day bike ride around Truckee and Donner. I understand each ride finished at the same watering hole...3 bells.
- Deb L completed her (CSUC's) land transfer of the Butte Creed Ecological Reserve. This has been a lot of work for her and she's glad it is now public knowledge.
- Karen and her husband Greg returned from a fly-fishing glamping trip with friends. She was with nine boats in class IV and V rapids where Greg fell out, but was found safe. All in all the area around Salmon, ID is beautiful...4 bells.
- Susie S shared that Thursday night socials continue at Crush, 4:30ish to 6ish.
- Sean shared that he returned from 3 nights in Chicago with friends and fun. He also reported that he has found no rental (update: Susan and he found a place on Friday).

Program

Stefanie Olson of shebuildshomes.com was our program. She has been in the industry for fifteen years as well as being in accounting and tax with Marshal and Marshal. Her passion is empowering women in the construction industry which she does through weekly podcast as well as her practices at her business.

She has flipped over 100 homes and built another 100, this while being a mom of three kids. She finished with a project methodology including a barn project as well as a lively Q&A session.
